C.A. NO. 22-cv-00044-JJM-PAS

STIPULATION

During the discovery in this action, the defendants sought the identification and contact information for persons who were at or about the location of the incident involved in this matter, to wit, 102 Wesleyan Avenue. The plaintiff objected to providing such information on various grounds. The parties have resolved this discovery dispute by way of the following stipulation:

The plaintiff will not have nor seek to have any witness testify at trial (for any purpose for or against any party hereto) who was present at or about 102 Wesleyan Avenue on January 27, 2019, and whose identify and contact information is/was not disclosed to any of the defendants on or before November 1, 2022.

Nothing herein shall preclude the plaintiff from calling any of the defendants as witnesses. Moreover, nothing herein shall preclude the plaintiff from calling any City employees/agents as witnesses (such as police officers or firefighters) whether or not they were present at or about the said 102 Wesleyan Avenue, provided required disclosures are made per the Rules of Procedure and/or any governing scheduling orders.

Likewise, with regard to any persons that the defendants may call as witnesses, nothing herein is intended to relieve the defendants of any and all disclosure obligations required by the Rules of Procedure and/or any governing scheduling orders.
